COMMITTEE DROPS COASTAL SHIPPING CONTROL FROM BILL

Clause Giving Transport Board Authority Over Air Services Adopted With Modification—Conservative Senate Leader Seeks Removal of Highway Traffic Provision

OTTAWA, March 9 (P).—The Senate railways committee tonight adopted an amendment to the bill to establish a board of transport commissioners, excluding from its provisions coastwise shipping on the Atlantic and Pacific coasts.

The amendment to the bill, designed to give the board and the Transport Minister wide powers over inland shipping, airways, inter-provincial and international bus and truck traffic, would leave the board authority over inland shipping on the Great Lakes and the St. Lawrence Gulf.

The committee then passed a clause that the bill should not become operative until proclaimed by the Governor-in-Council.

CONTROL OF AIR SERVICES

It passed another giving the transport commissioners authority over air services. The section authorizing the Transport Minister to issue licences for aircraft was modified slightly so as not to bear on strictly pioneer services in the North country.

It was made to read that the Minister may issue an aircraft licence when the board reported that "a regular service is being conducted." Interpretation of what constituted a regular service was left to the board.

WOULD REMOVE CLAUSE

Rt. Hon. Arthur Meighen, Senate Conservative leader, proposed the highway traffic clause giving the Federal board authority over truck and bus traffic of an inter-provincial and international nature or traveling on Dominion highways be stricken from the bill. He held it would only arouse a constitutional conflict with the provinces "who will fight every inch of the way."

Hon. C. D. Howe, Transport Minister, agreed with Senator Raoul Dandurand, Government leader, that he did not intend to proclaim the highway traffic provision until he had conferred with the provinces.

TAKES LEAD TO END DEADLOCK

Government Confers With Railway Heads—Unions Invited to Ottawa

OTTAWA, March 9 (P).—Apparently anticipating the result of the railway unions' wage restoration strike vote, to be completed March 18, the Dominion Government has already taken the initiative toward reopening negotiations between the deadlocked railways and their employees.

At the invitation of the Government, S. J. Hungerford, president of the Canadian National Railways, and Sir Edward Beatty, president of the Canadian Pacific Railway, today conferred at some length with Ernest Lapointe, acting Prime Minister; Transport Minister C. D. Howe and Labor Minister Norman Rogers.

UNIONS INVITED

An invitation has also been forwarded to the joint committee of the seventeen standard railroad unions to meet the Government at their earliest convenience. It is fully expected in Government circles this will result in a round-table conference this week.

It had been generally indicated until recently no move would be made from any direction for a renewal of negotiations between the railways and unions until after the result of the strike vote was known. Today's conference came as a complete surprise, as much to union representatives as anyone. They interpreted it as recognition by the Government of the solid enthusiasm being shown at railroaders' mass meetings across the country.

Two Below Zero In North Britain

LONDON, March 9 (CP-Havas).—Southeastern England was buried under its heaviest blanket of snow in recent years today. Many villages in Kent were completely isolated by the blizzard. In Scotland it was 2 below zero today.

ONTARIO HAS BIG SURPLUS

Premier Hepburn in Budget Speech Says People to Receive Benefits

TORONTO, March 9 (P).—Ontario is on the high road of financial balance, Premier Mitchell Hepburn told the Legislature today in a budget speech announcing a surplus for the present fiscal year of $7,347,729.

The Premier announced three ways in which the people would benefit by improving finances. They were:

1. Abolition of the amusement tax, June 1.
2. Reductions of motor licence fees; 25 per cent on commercial trucks, an amount to be determined later on passenger cars.
3. Municipal subsidies of one mill on rateable assessment to every municipality in Ontario.

GIVEN OVATION

When the Premier finished his ninety-minute address, the shortest budget speech in years, Liberal members put on a demonstration that lasted several minutes.

Mr. Hepburn said the net debt of the province would be "somewhat reduced" March 31, end of the fiscal year.

He predicted a surplus on the fiscal year beginning April 1 of $2,282,905.

ESTIMATED REVENUE

Gross revenue in the fiscal year ending March 31 (ten months actual, two months estimated) he set at $92,221,809. Expenditures were fixed at $84,874,079. Unemployment relief costs of $12,500,000 were met out of revenue.

For the next fiscal year Mr. Hepburn forecast revenue of $94,849,224.20 and expenditure of $92,566,418.58, both figures setting new peaks for any Canadian province.

TO START SOON ON DARING TRIP

BURBANK, Calif., March 9 (P).—Amelia Earhart Putnam today completed preliminary preparations for her ambitious round-the-world flight following the equator.

Within a few days she will take off from Oakland in her eight-ton "flying laboratory" on the 27,000-mile globe-circling trip.

She planned to leave tonight for Oakland, possibly halting at Bakersfield until morning, and possibly going straight on to Oakland in a night flying test unless fog interfered.

Minister of Finance Predicts Surplus on Return From Ottawa

Hon. John Hart Expects to Close Fiscal Year With $2,000,000 Balance—Loan Floated in Toronto Complete Success

RETURNING home from Ottawa a day earlier than anticipated, Hon. John Hart left the afternoon boat for the Mainland yesterday and drove at once to St. Joseph's Hospital, where Mrs. Hart lay suffering from a light attack of pneumonia. Mrs. Hart's condition was reported improved.

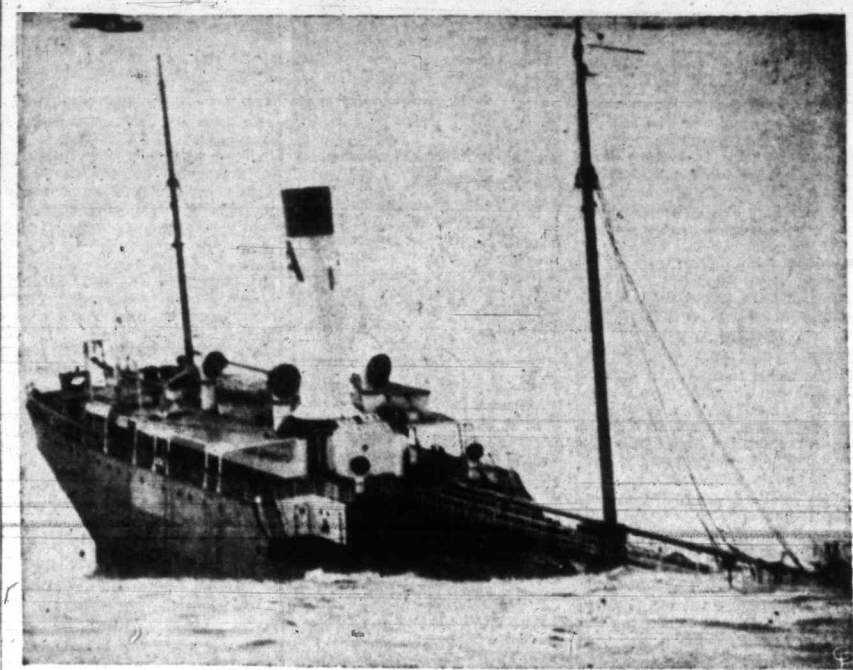

Mr. Hart said he had nothing to add at present to the announcement he made yesterday morning on his way through Vancouver, when he confirmed the $3,000,000 loan effected in Eastern Canada by the Province, and predicted an operating surplus of $2,000,000 in British Columbia's fiscal year now closing.

Premier Pattullo, the last of the Cabinet to return, is expected back in the city at the week-end, after arrival in Vancouver on Friday.

PREDICTS SURPLUS

VANCOUVER, March 9 (P).—Hon. John Hart, Minister of Finance, estimated in an interview here today the Province would have a surplus of $2,000,000

Oil Tanker After Golden Gate Crash

Her decks awash, her stern rising high in the water, the tanker Frank H. Buck is pictured after she crashed into the Dollar liner Ss. President Coolidge. The tanker was reported to be carrying a full cargo of 65,000 gallons of oil when she crashed in the fog-bound Golden Gate. The vessel drifted several miles and ran ashore.

Drastic Punishment for Drunken Driver May Be Called For by New Bill

Careful Consideration Promised Proposed Measure by Minister of Justice

FULLY SUPPORTED BY OPPOSITION LEADER

OTTAWA, March 9 (P).—"Everybody seems to have the speed fever except the House of Commons and the Senate," T. L. Church, Conservative member for Toronto-Broadview, said in the House tonight as he urged more drastic punishment for highway offences.

A promise of careful consideration of Mr. Church's bill to amend the Criminal Code came from Justice Minister Ernest Lapointe. The measure, however, was talked out and did not receive second reading.

INCREASED PENALTIES

It would provide increased penalties for driving motor cars "under the influence of alcohol or any narcotic" instead of the former description "while intoxicated or under the influence of any narcotic," stiffened.

Fights Way Back From Live Crater

TOKIO, March 9 (P).—Kaname Okai, twenty-five, an antique dealer, hurled himself headlong into the seething sulphurous "Crater of Hell" on Mount Mihara today and then fought his way back to life after six hours within the roaring cauldron. Okai was caught on an overhanging cliff midway down the pit, where more than 2,000 have committed suicide.

Yale Students Express Sarcasm By Starting "King" Movement

NEW HAVEN, Conn., March 9 (P).—A "Roosevelt-for-King" movement got under way at Yale University today as a group of collegians suggested, with unhidden sarcasm, that the United States President be crowned Franklin I at Washington, to be known henceforth as "Roosevelt, D.C."

The king's title would be Franklin I "by the grace of God and the Democratic organization, King of the United States, the Virgin Islands, the Panama Canal Zone, and the American Dominions beyond the seas, Defender of the Budget, and Emperor of Wake Islands."

Abolition of the press in favor of the "Fireside chats by His Imperial Majesty" was also proposed.

Corrected Report of Fate of Spanish Government's Captured Munitions Ship Confirmed by Survivor From Crew, French Trawler's Captain and Officers of Two British Destroyers

ARCACHON, France, March 9 (P).—Officers of two British destroyers said tonight that as late as this morning the Spanish Government's munitions ship Mar Cantabrico was afloat and moving under her own power, the war prize of insurgent captors.

They confirmed earlier reports that the freighter, which carried war supplies from New York and Vera Cruz, Mexico, consigned to the Madrid regime, had not been sunk in the Bay of Biscay.

FAKIR LEADING INDIAN REVOLT

British Troops Pouring Into Northwest to Crush Long-Smouldering Rebellion

RAWALPINDI, India, March 9 (P).—Troops poured into Northwest India tonight to put down a revolt reportedly led by the Fakir of Ipi, a ferocious ascetic who has contested British rule for thirty years.

Military trains arrived almost hourly at the station at Marri, on the Indus, the railroad for Waziristan and the neighboring regions, in which rebellion has been smouldering for months.

The fakir—he calls himself "the champion of Islam" and is known also as "the firebrand" and "the holy man of the Sulaiman Mountains"—recently attacked a British force as it marched into tribal territory, British advisers said. Casualties were heavy.

The son of a caravan driver, the fakir spent his early years as a coolie boy in the houses of Peshawar. Then he accepted religion, declaring he had supernatural powers, and speedily won many followers.

Millions Left by Tourists in B.C. Bureau Indicates

Tourists left $25,000,000 in British Columbia last year, $12,500,000 of which came from motoring parties, Major Gordon Smith, of the Provincial Information Bureau, said yesterday. The figures are based on the estimated British Columbia percentage of the tourist trade for Canada as a whole, compiled by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics. In the year previous motorists left $8,000,000 in the province, Major Smith said.

GROWTH TO BE STUDIED

Royal Commission to Tackle Problem of Large Centres of Population

LONDON, March 9 (P).—Ernest Brown, Minister of Labor, tonight told the House of Commons "uncontrolled and unrestricted growth of great centres of population, and London in particular," raised questions of public health, communications and vulnerability from air raids in wartime.

The Government, he said, in an address continually interrupted by the Labor Opposition, proposed to appoint a Royal commission to study these problems. Brown was speaking on a financial resolution concerning the distressed areas.

UNDER CONSIDERATION

In regard to proposals to stimulate the coal export trade by a subsidy, Brown said the matter had been under consideration and would be further studied when the export trade situation appeared to warrant it.

A number of new factories were being established in the distressed areas of the Tyneside and South Wales, he added.

The debate was adjourned after Walter Elliot, Secretary of State of Scotland, said the Government could not spend money lavishly as that would cause such a rise in interest rates as to defeat the Government's plans to relieve the distressed areas.

AIRMEN SAFE AT HONGKONG BASE

HONGKONG, March 10 (P).—Three flying boats of the British Royal Air Force arrived here safely today, after having spent a night afloat on rough waters off the Island of Namtang, south of here, under guard of two British destroyers.

They had been forced down while flying from Singapore to Hongkong to take part in large-scale army, navy and air manoeuvres in the Hongkong area.

A fourth flying boat, unconfirmed reports stated, alighted with the other planes, but when its anchor cable parted and heavy seas threatened to swamp the craft, it managed to regain the air and fly blind over high fog-ridden hills into Hongkong.

Wants Bill Enacted To Save Constitution From Supreme Court

WASHINGTON, March 9 (P).—President Roosevelt called for swift enactment of his Court Reorganization Bill tonight to "save the constitution from itself." In outspoken fashion, the chief executive asserted the high tribunal had "improperly set itself up" as a "super legislature," and had read into the Constitution "words and implications which are not there and which were never intended to be there."

At the same time, he disavowed any intent to "pack" the court with "spineless puppets who would disregard the law, and decide cases as he might wish them decided, and asserted the processes of constitutional amendment were too slow for the pressing problems of the day.

Documents Found on Prisoners Indicate Divisions of Italy's Regular Army Operating on Side of Spanish Insurgents—Republican Militia Reported Holding Fast at Secondary Defences

Torrential Rains Stop Major Operations on South Front

MADRID, March 9 (P).—Fifteen thousand Italian soldiers led by the Italian General Pozzi constitute the bulk of the insurgent forces which today smashed through the Government's first line of defence in Guadalajara Province; it was claimed here tonight.

The statement was credited to four Italian soldier-made prisoners during the fighting. Among their documents was an order for the delivery of munitions bearing the stamps of the Third and Fourth Army. These are stated to be Italian divisions operating in Guadalajara.

"SLAVES OF MUSSOLINI" The insurgents, having first called upon the Moors, then the "blond Moors" (the Germans), have now called upon "the slaves of Mussolini" to fight their battles for them, General Jose Miaja declared in a broadcast.

Along the thirty-mile front lying between insurgent-held Sigüenza and Guadalajara City, held by the Government, the Republican militia were hurled back to their secondary defence lines, where they were reported holding fast.

General Jose Miaja's Madrid junta admitted the defence had weakened on the Guadalajara front, at the same time formally charging Italy.

CONSERVATIVES CHOOSE LEADER

W. H. Carr Is Unanimous Choice for President of Saanich Group

W. H. Carr, a lifelong Conservative worker in Saanich, was chosen president of the Saanich Conservative Association last evening by unanimous vote, at a well-attended meeting at the Conservative rooms, Campbell Building, P. Mickleburgh was elected first vice-president, to fill the vacancy caused by the elevation of Mr. Carr. W. E. Pitchford was named auditor in association with A. R. Sherwood.

Saanich Conservatives went on record in a request to the British Columbia Conservative Association that a resident Vancouver Island organizer be appointed for the party, to act jointly with J. H. Morgan, voluntary organizer and first vice-president of the British Columbia executive of the association.

COMMITTEE NAMED

P. Mickleburgh, John Patterson and Henry Holmes were appointed as a special committee to redraft the constitution of the Saanich organization, along uniform lines with other district Conservative associations.

Leslie Osborn, Conservative candidate in the Saanich provincial riding, addressed the meeting briefly on organization affairs. Vancouver Island communities, he said, would have to stand together better in the future than they had done in the past if any adequate solution were to be found for the continuing problem of unemployment and lack of opportunity for youth among Island residents.

The meeting was followed by a social hour, with plans laid for a card party to be held in two weeks' time. Mr. Carr presided.

BENNETT BUDGET MOTION BEATEN

OTTAWA, March 9 (P).—With one Liberal "jumping the traces," the House of Commons today defeated Conservative Leader R. B. Bennett's amendment to the budget motion by 145 votes to 57.

The bolting Liberal was William H. Moore, member for Ontario and former chairman of the tariff board. His action came as a surprise, as he had not spoken in the debate preceding the vote on the Bennett amendment which declares the Liberal Government failed to take effective measures to deal with unemployment. After defeat of the amendment, the budget debate continues and Mr. Moore may make a statement.

All the Conservative, Social Credit and Co-operative Commonwealth Federation members voted for the Bennett amendment.

Addresses to Be Sent to Governor

OTTAWA, March 9.—Dr. O. D. Skelton, under-secretary of state for external affairs, has written Mayor Stanley Lewis that municipalities desiring to present addresses to King George on the occasion of the Coronation may send them to the Governor-General for transmission. It was learned today.

Brief on Relief Is Prepared by Mayor For Ottawa Parley

Announces He Will Not Attend Dominion Conference of Mayors and Union of Canadian Municipalities Convention, March 16 to 18

MAYOR Andrew McGavin will not attend the Dominion Conference of Mayors and the Union of Canadian Municipalities Convention at Ottawa from March 16 to 18, it was announced at the City Hall yesterday. A comprehensive brief the mayor compiled on relief matters may be presented on behalf of Victoria at the meetings by Mayor George C. Miller, of Vancouver.

Although pressed by the council to represent the city, Mayor McGavin has voiced his opposition to "tripping" upon several occasions. He felt that his presence was required here during debate on annual civic estimates, and that a brief presented on behalf of the city would accomplish as much as a personal visit to Ottawa.

SAVING TO CITY
Mayor McGavin's action in declining to attend the conference will result in a saving of some $600 to the city.

Following are extracts from the mayor's brief to be presented at Ottawa:

"There are 3,407 recipients of relief in Victoria of which 778 are heads of families; 1,910 dependents; 72 transient family heads; 126 dependents; 312 single men; 144 single women, and 64 Chinese. Relief cost the city of Victoria $169,114 in 1936. Between 1930 and 1936, relief cost the taxpayers $1,471,646, and the Federal and Provincial Governments $1,441,375.

LITTLE TO SHOW
"When it is remembered that there is little to show in the way of permanent improvements for an expenditure of nearly $3,000,000, it is obvious there is room for a great deal of improvement in our method of handling this problem.

"Permanent city charges cost $35,307 in 1936, an increase of 100 per cent since 1932. If the city had no other relief problem, this is a burden quite heavy enough for our taxpayers to carry.

"Our social service costs are steadily increasing. In 1936 their cost to the city was $169,845. Between 1932 and 1936 taxpayers provided $1,441,967 for social services.

"Since 1933 additional social service charges have been added as follows: Mothers' pensions, 50 per cent; city patients in Escondido, 50 per cent; and city inmates in industrial schools, eighty cents per day. In 1937 the city will have to pay $125 per day for all Victoria residents with tuberculosis admitted to British Columbia hospitals," Mayor McGavin declared in his brief.

FIRST WHITE GIRL BORN HERE DIES

Mrs. Hannah Ball Passed Away in Victoria in Her Eighty-Fourth Year

Mrs. Hannah Ball, a resident of Victoria and district all her life, passed away Monday in her eighty-fourth year at her home, 114 Douglas Street. She was the first white girl born in Victoria and was the eldest daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Parker. Mrs. Ball was predeceased by her husband, Charles Ball, about twenty years ago.

Her parents arrived here from Kent, England, when Victoria was a fort, and Mrs. Ball witnessed the gradual growth of the city from a settlement within stockades to its present dimensions.

Possessed of a loving and kind disposition, the deceased Mrs. Ball leaves a host of friends to mourn her passing.

She is survived by five daughters, Miss A. Ball, Mrs. J. McLennan and Mrs. H. Turner, all in Victoria; Mrs. A. McLennan, Vancouver, and Mrs. A. Rhode, Luxton; two sons, George Ball, Rocky Point, and William Ball, Victoria; thirty-five grandchildren and seventeen great-grandchildren; three sisters, Mrs. Mary Walker, Mrs. M. Croghan and Mrs. A. Stewart; also two brothers, John Parker, California, and Harry Parker, Colwood.

Funeral services will be held at Hayward's B.C. Funeral Chapel on Thursday afternoon at 2:15 o'clock, and interment will be in the family plot in Ross Bay Cemetery.

DRASTIC PUNISHMENT CALLED FOR BY BILL

ing other sections of the code dealing with highway accidents, provide for women jurors at trials of women and for admission of representatives of the press at executions.

Some said accidents were inevitable, said Mr. Church, that they were due to the modern craze for speed. If this was the case he wished Parliament would get a little of the craze in dealing with law reform.

LEADERS SUPPORT

Support for the bill came from Conservative Leader R. S. Bennett and J. S. Woodsworth, C.C.F. leader. If the penalty for drunken driving were fixed as proposed in Mr. Church's bill, said Mr. Bennett, it would go a long way toward ending the present slaughter on the highways.

In England, he said, the pedestrian's right on the streets and roads had been established as paramount to the rights of motor traffic. He hoped Canada would follow the British example.

A. W. Neill (Independent, Comox-Alberni) supported the section dealing with drunken driving.

STATE VICTORIA NEEDS AIRPORT

Kiwanis Club Members Express Hope That Service Will Be Established

Members of the Kiwanis Club, at the Empress Hotel yesterday, discussed very fully the question of establishment of an airport in this city. The opinion expressed by all who spoke on the subject was that it would be very important to this city to have an airport here.

The subject was introduced for discussion by A. C. Stuckey, who referred to the activity in air travel now. There was also the development of the mail carriage and fast freight and express shipments. It seemed probable that there would be a cross-Canada air mail service in less than a year's time.

There were also other services in view. One of these was the proposal that there should be an air service from Victoria or Vancouver to Alaska, then across to Asia and down that continent to Hongkong and on to other parts of the world.

URGENT ACTION
Victoria was going to be isolated if it were not connected up with the services being created. He thought the club should get to work with the Chamber of Commerce and get an airport established here. Otherwise, mails would be long delayed as compared with other ports.

The question was raised that complaints had come from Seattle that weather reports could not be obtained from Victoria, which made it troublesome for flyers wishing to come from Seattle to this city.

G. J. McDowell pointed out that Victoria was the first and the last port of call for vessels coming from and going to the Orient. There would be great savings if an airport were located here.

G. H. Stevens alluded to the visibility which prevailed here. No other port could compare with it on the Coast. Last year 25,000 persons reached Seattle by planes.

Dr. H. H. Hare considered that in no other way could the slogan "Follow the Birds to Victoria" be better carried out than by establishing an air service.

The matter will be followed up by the club.

WINDSOR, Ont., March 9.—In line with a three-year $8,000,000 expansion programme of the Ford Motor Company of Canada, Limited, a $3,300,000 contract was let today to a local contractor for a new fifteen-acre body and assembly plant here. Work will start almost immediately.

ASSIZES OPEN HERE MONDAY

Mr. Justice D. A. McDonald Will Preside, With Carew Martin Crown Counsel

The Spring Assizes, which will open here on Monday, will be presided over by Mr. Justice D. A. McDonald. The list of cases is a very short one, and it is as yet somewhat uncertain just how many cases will come up for trial.

Rex vs. Meha Singh, in which the accused is charged with perjury, is on the list of cases set down for hearing. A juvenile case carried over from the last Assize sitting is also on the list, and there is also the case of Rex vs. Jack Manning, in which the accused is charged with conspiracy to defraud by the practice of a confidence game.

In this latter case, however, the accused is to come up for trial in Vancouver on a similar charge on the same date, and it is not definitely known whether he will be called upon to answer the charge here.

Mr. Justice McDonald is taking the Supreme Court work here during the present week.

The Crown will be represented by Carew Martin, of this city, at the Assize sitting.

FILM DIRECTOR RECUPERATING

Work, suspended yesterday on Central Films' seventh production, "Women Against the World," on account of the sudden illness of Director David Selman, was expected to begin again today. Mr. Selman, who is suffering from the effects of a severe chill, was reported to be "much better" last evening.

Had the director not improved by Thursday, it would have been necessary to telephone Hollywood and have a substitute flown here to take charge.

Ralph Forbes, leading man, is expected in Victoria aboard the St. Iroquois this morning, and production could not have been suspended after his arrival because of the limited time available. Mr. Forbes is scheduled to begin work Thursday morning.

Proposal to Erect Crematorium Fails To Gain Approval

Saanich Council Rejects Recommendation of Cemetery Board Despite Endorsement of Reeve William Crouch and Action of Victoria

DESPITE the fact that Reeve William Crouch declared the construction of a crematorium at Royal Oak Burial Park would be "the best investment Saanich could make," the council of the municipality rejected the proposal last evening, on a vote of four to three, after hearing a delegation from the Board of Cemetery Trustees of Greater Victoria, composed of Ald. John A. Worthington, H. G. Allan, secretary, and H. C. Oldfield, chairman, and representative for Saanich.

Mr. Oldfield asserted the number of cremations in Greater Victoria alone, had increased from forty-five to seventy-five between 1933 and 1936. He declared that if a crematorium were established elsewhere in Greater Victoria, the revenues of the cemetery board would be adversely affected, gave details of the expected revenue, and told the council the approximate charge of cremations would be $40.

The crematorium, to cost $16,000, tion that the "recommendation of the cemetery board be adopted," was lost. Councillors A. G. Lambrick, G. A. Austin and John Oliver voted for the motion; Councillors E. C. Warren, John Watson, L. C. Hagan and L. H. Passmore against.

TO BUY SHOVEL
Councillors Hagan and Passmore suggested they did not object to a crematorium, but that insufficient information had been given them. The report of Councillor Austin, who recently returned from inspecting steam shovels at Seattle, that a North-West model, No. 18, be purchased from the B.C. Equipment Company, for the net price of $8,497, was adopted, with Councillors Warren, Watson and Passmore dissenting. The price is $997 more than the estimated cost.

The municipality will exercise powers granted by the Legislature, and protect flowers and shrubs within its parks, by the passage of a by-law, the council decided.

CYCLIST INJURED IN CAR COLLISION

Suffering from a fractured collarbone sustained when his bicycle collided with a police prowler car driven by Constable Roy Woolsey, Donald Wardell, 1117 Hillside Avenue, was removed to Jubilee Hospital for treatment by Dr. F. M. Bryant at 11 o'clock last evening.

According to a police report, Wardell was proceeding along Quadra Street without a light on his bicycle when he ran into the right rear fender of the prowler car at the intersection of Kings Road. He was thrown from the machine and sustained a fractured collarbone.

Invited to New York City

STANLEY F. BULLEY
The organist and choir conductor at Christ Church Cathedral, has received a flattering invitation from the president of the American Choral and Festival Alliance, with headquarters at Boston, to take a choral group from Victoria to the International Music Festival to take place in New York City in the Spring of 1938.

This important musical event, "a gathering of the world's singers and a jubilee of song," is furthered to be a tryout for a more inclusive event for the New York World's Fair of 1939, and among the choirs which have already accepted invitations to be present are the British Broadcasting National Chorus, the Orpheus Club of Glasgow, the Teachers of Prague (or the Moravian Chorus), the St. Thomas choir from Leipzig (Bach's), the Vienna Boys' Choir, the winning group from the Eisteddfod of Wales, the Winnipeg Male Choir, and groups from South America and elsewhere.

Mr. Bulley is already considering organizing a body of chorists to accept this invitation, which he considers is a very great compliment to Victoria.

Officers of the Burns Club renominated at a meeting in the Chamber of Commerce last evening were W. B. Grant, president; J. A. Dewar, vice-president; J. Crossan, treasurer, and E. M. Whyte, secretary. Names read for appointment to the executive were James McMartin, John Grant, Donald MacDale, Capt. R. W. McMurray, Adam Bell and R. W. Marsh. Club members may submit additional names within the next ten days for the annual election on April 13.

Those taking part in the musical programme were Leonard Foster, flute solos; Thomas McMartin, piano solos; Miss Marrian Mitchell, songs; A. W. Trevett, songs, and Pipe Major Donald Cameron, W.O. bagpipe selections. Miss Jessie Smith was the accompanist.

W. B. Grant, who presided, urged all present to attend a concert to be held by Burns Club in the Chamber of Commerce auditorium on Friday, April 2.

PEBBLE POLISHING

In a talk on "Victoria Beach Pebbles," J. F. Bledsoe maintained the polishing of pebbles for souvenirs would gain valuable publicity for the city. He exhibited two cases of pebbles picked up on beaches from Telegraph Point to Jordan River, and stated pebble polishing was an enjoyable and educational hobby for middle-aged persons.

Most of the pebbles on local beaches were of glacial origin, and many were peculiar to the district, Mr. Bledsoe asserted. He described how they had presumably been rounded and polished when borne along by glaciers long before they were subjected to action of the sea. Mr. Bledsoe believed local pebbles could do as much for the city as the famous polished granite and cairngorms of Scotland.

Thomas A. Booz Dies in Toronto

Thomas A. Booz, foreman of The Victoria Daily Times' composing room for years, and prominent in local Odd Fellow circles, died Tuesday, March 2, at the home of his sister-in-law, Mrs. Charles Booz, Gifford Street, Toronto.

The late Mr. Booz was in his seventy-ninth year. He had resided in Victoria from 1888 until 1922, when he moved to Toronto. He was still a member of the local Typographical Union at the time of his death. He was a member of the original "Black Devils" during the rebellion of 1865.

Following cremation at Necropolis Crematorium, the ashes are being shipped here for interment beside his wife. A daughter, Mrs. J. Charles, of St. Catherine's, Ont., survives.

LOCAL TEAMS ON ONE NIGHT

March 26 Set for Appearance of Island Competitors in Vancouver

The three teams from Victoria which will compete in the British Columbia Regional Festival of the 1937 Dominion Drama Festival will play in Vancouver on the night of Friday, March 26. Those concerned are reminded that they must be in Vancouver at least eight hours before they are required to play, which means they must leave Victoria either on the afternoon or the mid-night boat on Thursday, March 25, at the latest.

This notice was given to the competing teams on Sunday afternoon, during a tea given at the home of the local chairman, Capt. T. L. Thorpe-Douglas and Mrs. Thorpe-Douglas, Montclair Street, when members of the executive committee of the Victoria and Vancouver Island Elimination Contest for the 1937 Dominion Drama Festival and members of the several casts met to discuss the festival with the adjudicator, Frank Johnston, Vancouver.

EXPRESS APPRECIATION

During the afternoon, Harry J. Davis, president of the Victoria Little Theatre Association, expressed the grateful appreciation of the executive committee and those who had any connection with the festival to Captain Thorpe-Douglas, who, as chairman, had worked tirelessly and to whom in large measure the great success of the contest was due.

The teams going to Vancouver will be "The Skin Game," by Galsworthy, the cast being from the Victoria Little Theatre Association; "An Act of Private Lives," by Noel Coward, with a team from the Beaux-Arts, and "The Careless Warrior," by Reby Edmond, of Victoria, with a cast from the Curtain Club of Victoria. The placing of the last entry means that Miss Edmond's play is forwarded to Ottawa, there to compete with other one-act plays written by a domiciled Canadian and played before the overseas adjudicator during the regional festivals for the Manuscript Award. It will be remembered that Miss Edmond won the Authorship Cup in the senior section of the British Columbia Drama Festival two years ago.

NATIONAL SECRETARY OF YOUTH COUNCIL TO VISIT CITY TOMORROW

Kenneth Woodworth, national secretary of the Canadian Youth Council, is expected in Victoria tomorrow. Mr. Woodworth was one of Canada's delegates to the Youth Congress in Geneva last Spring and is well informed regarding youth councils and their aims and objectives.

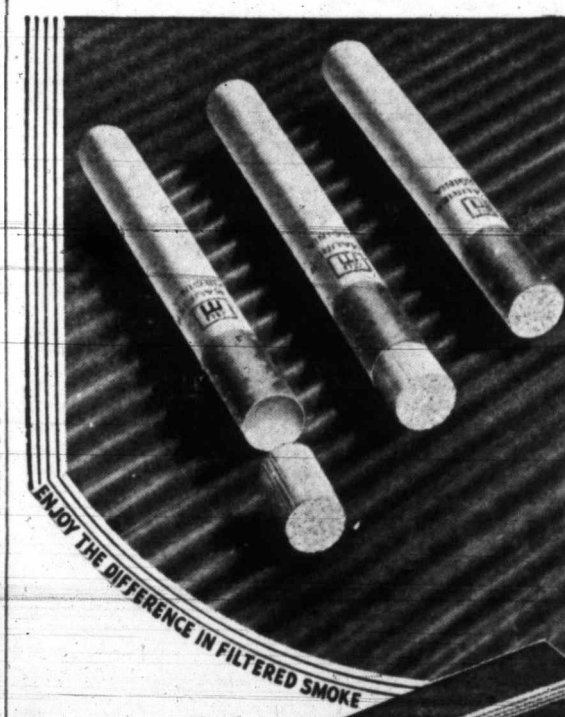

A supper has been arranged for tomorrow night at 6:15 at the Y.W.C.A., to which delegates of the Victoria and District Youth Council, the Ministerial Association, the Y.M.C.A. and Y.W.C.A. are urged to attend. Mr. Woodworth will speak and there will be a round-table discussion. Following supper, the regular meeting of the council will be held.

Friday, Mr. Woodworth will speak to several discussion groups and interested youth groups in the city.

SANCTITY OF CIVIL LIBERTY

The recent judgments of the Judicial Committee of the Imperial Privy Council on the Bennett "New Deal" legislation uphold to the full Chief Justice Duff's ability as a constitutional authority. This is a conclusion reached by The Fortnightly Law Journal of Toronto in its current issue. Another point regarded as of high importance by that publication is "the consistent repulse" throughout all the judgments "of the Dominion's indirect attempts to encroach on the fundamental provincial power over property and civil rights." Their Lordships came to the conclusion that in the "New Deal" legislation there was an intrusion upon provincial authority and ruled accordingly.

Seventy years of the constitutional system under which this country operates have not shown it to be a failure, but in later years the power given to the provinces over civil rights has been abused. The failure has been in those to whom the electorate have entrusted the administration. The Law Journal says, and it might be speaking specifically of Alberta and British Columbia, that "current dictatorship and bureaucracy, which are not the essential products of any system or any division of powers, are wrecking Confederation, in spite, not because of the B.N.A. Act. In fact only that statute in its full force and independence of the Courts stand between the politician and the disruption of Canada's constitution."

The provinces have control over civil rights, but that obviously implies the protection of those rights. In British Columbia, under the Marketing Control Act, it is a legal point as to whether those rights have been violated. If ever compulsory health insurance goes into effect the same issue will arise. There is, in both cases, a curtailment of the rights of the individual, and to that extent a violation of civil liberty. It may be that the provinces have the power to curb and curtail that liberty as in the case of the Marketing Act and the Health Insurance Act. The precedents thus created, however, are exceedingly dangerous ones and should be resisted strenuously by all those who believe in the freedom of the subject to decide for himself in matters which are his own intimate concern.

A FIREPLANE SERVICE

It was suggested in Great Britain as far back as 1919 that there should be aerial fire brigades. A flying fire force is practical. Airplanes are used to detect forest fires; they could be utilized to fight fires of different sorts, and they could reach outbreaks under almost any circumstances, whereas the present equipment is sometimes unable to proceed to the scene because of roads covered with snow and ice. With the aerial bombardment of cities in time of war an aerial fire fighting force becomes more important still, because, following such bombardment, the debris of demolished buildings may make roadways impassable. Moreover, fire stations may be destroyed and the apparatus put out of commission.

A proposal made in The Aerial Fire Force Gazette is that an aerial fire brigade should be stationed at every airport and that fireplanes should be available to give speedy attention to crashed aircraft, railway crashes and fires in isolated territory. It is suggested that one fireplane should be equipped with turbine motor pumps, another with chemical fire extinguishers of at least 100-gallon capacity and another should carry metal framework extension ladders and usual fire equipment and "spares." There is also the ability of fireplanes to bomb out fires that have got beyond control. They can act as flying ambulances carrying a doctor and a nurse. A fireplane design comprises a fully equipped fire engine. It is mobile and can be lifted and transported by a specially constructed airplane. It is disconnected on landing by a few turns of a worm-screw and can proceed to the scene of the fire under its own power. It has pumps, ladders, large chemical fire extinguishers, usual equipment and a crew of three. Fireplanes can be constructed to hover and land slowly. Mr. James C. Duncan, formerly of the London Fire Service, has worked for nearly twenty years to bring into being this new arm of the fire fighting service. When the time comes for this innovation which seems a certainty existing fire engines may become as obsolete as the stage coach.

INCUBUS OF GOVERNMENT

Is there over-government in the Dominion with 27,500 governments? The answer must be unequivocally in the affirmative. The Canada Year Book shows there are 23,250 school administrative units, more than a hundred cities, 482 towns, 1,629 villages, 128 counties, 2,223 rural municipalities, 318 local improvement districts and five suburban municipalities. In a current report on "taxation in Saskatchewan alone it was stated that there are 7,052 agencies of local government," each possessing powers to borrow money and levy taxes. Alberta has 2,113 tax-collecting bodies and there are 1,500 rural school authorities that levy their own school taxes. Right across the Dominion runs the story of multiple government, duplicating tax-collecting machinery, and duplicated taxes as well. Over-government is the incubus which prevents the Dominion enjoying the prosperity it should have with its great natural resources. There is to be a Royal Commission to inquire into the financial relationships between the Dominion and the provinces, and presumably also to inquire into governmental costs as a whole. All the figures are available and can be readily secured. Where such a Royal Commission will have a fruitful field for its labors is in reaching conclusions that will point the way to retrenchment in government by cutting down the elaborate overhead that now exists. The country could be governed as well as it is at less than half the money now expended for that purpose.

WHY THE DIFFERENCES?

There are probably a thousand and one things and the ways of doing them that distinguish a woman from the mere male. There are few people, however, shrewd enough to observe them, and certainly not to the extent noted by a woman correspondent of The Johannesburg Star. She points out that when a woman lights a match from a box of matches she does so by striking the match outwards, whereas a man usually strikes it towards him. A man will double up his hand and look only at his nails, but a woman inspects her whole hand. On entering a room it appears that a woman looks round before looking in a corner, while a man's gaze will go directly to a corner. Then, again, when drinking a glass of water a woman looks over the top of the glass at someone opposite; a man looks into the glass.

These are trivial differences, perhaps, but they may conceivably indicate differences in mentality. A woman holds a cigarette and smokes it in a way dissimilar to a man. There are even points of differences between the sexes in the drinking of a cup of tea and the holding of a piece of cake or a sandwich. A woman will often do with her left hand what a man would do with his right, though both are right-handed. There are distinct variations in the method of swinging a golf club as between the sexes and in lawn tennis strokes as well. All these differences may be due to varying physical conformation, but in the mental outlook, in many respects, they are as marked. Perhaps it all was explained when Sir James Barrie said: "You see, dear, it is not true that woman was made from man's rib; she was really made from his funnybone."

CAMOUFLAGING DEFICITS

Hereafter it would appear to be the purpose of the Federal Administration to conceal from the people the cost of national ownership of railways. In other words, there will be no knowledge made known officially of what will be the yearly levy on taxes to meet the annual deficits. In that way there will be deception practised which will be unfair to those who have to foot the bill for national ownership, and as well to potential investors in Canadian securities. It is dishonest to "cook" railway accounts in order to present a more attractive picture to the taxpayers. The process of concealment affecting the true state of affairs commenced under the last regime at Ottawa and Mr. R. B. Bennett says that he did not like the concealment and protested against it. Now, under the present Government, there is a rewriting of the financial structure of national ownership. The Government is not being honest with itself or with its constituents in the course it is following.

A new kind of golf club shaft is being made of river reeds, kind in sand. There is no joint needed and no glue, and the resulting stick has only to be planned to produce the actual shaft. Professionals speak highly of clubs made by this process, and with the river reed, the degree of whip depends on where the shaft has been planned. It looks like steel, feels like hickory, and the claim is that it has the virtues of both as a playing medium.

CANADA, THE AERIAL LINK

What might be called the aerial chain between this country and the Pacific Coast is being forged link by link. Experiments in trans-Atlantic flying are to be undertaken in the near future. Meanwhile, Canada is pushing ahead with the air trail from the Atlantic Coast to the Pacific. Airports on the route are being improved, direction-finding stations and beacons established and the dramatic leap over the Rockies is being brought to the standard of arm-chair comfort. The initial service will be opened in July. The route across the continent runs from Vancouver to Lethbridge, across the Crow's Nest Pass, thence to Winnipeg and Elmdale, where it divides into two, one branch going to Toronto, the other to Montreal, from which city the route continues to the Maritime Provinces—Empire Review, London.

Note and Comment

By Sandham Graves

One suspects it is a characteristic of law-abiding peoples that few men can pass a policeman on the street without examining themselves hurriedly and mentally to see that they are "within the law." It is the normal and conscious reaction to the uniform of authority. Though crime cannot be condoned, one is free to admire the nerve of a thief at Liverpool, England, who last week hooded a pawnbroker with his own goods. Tried before a police magistrate, the culprit grinned as the prosecution testified that he had walked up to a rack of coats in front of a second-hand store, selected the best-looking one, and pledged it to the pawnbroker within the same store for four shillings and sixpence. If a man like that wanted to go straight, he could go far. He could sell mining and oil stock with the air of one conferring a favor on the buyer; pearl-handled mirrors to members of a revolutionary junta; and machine guns to societies for the prevention of cruelty to politicians. I wish I had his nerve. I would demand corn beef and cabbage—but never mind.

Spelling bees! Spelling bees and the downfall of men; they go hand in hand. All over the country the girls are standing up to the spelling bee, and retiring the boys at the rate of six to one. In an Eastern college the other day six girls remained standing, opposite to one lone surviving youth, after an hour of mental hurling of such words as: aspidochelone, perihelion, perihelion, fyfiffo (I would have dropped right there), erose, spiracle, phantasmagoria, eleemosynary and paralleliped. As I said, one man remained standing, but it was suspected later that his locomotive muscles had been definitely ruined and therefore he could not sit down. If this is social security, give me bedlam!

I would like to promote the idea of a planetarium for Victoria, but my knowledge of the stars is confined to that of a practical navigator who had some occasion to fly at night. I learned then the value of the heavens at night time, beyond the complete and compelling beauty of the jewelled curtain of the sky. Will not somebody who really knows the subject take up the suggestion and examine it for what it is worth? Many others have mentioned it. Man has everything to gain and nothing to lose from a more widespread popular study of the larger stars and planets that compose even the limited field within his present vision. That vision is broadening, with increase in the size of telescopes, through the co-ordination of observation about the world, and in other ways; but the results are not reaching the public to the extent that would be reasonably possible, despite the fine work of astronomical societies and similar agencies. If a planetarium were feasible in Victoria, it would provide a genuine attraction, and one that has not been overdone about this or any country. That would be a form of adult education that I for one could endorse without any reservations. (What would it cost? How does one get a planetarium? What would be the upkeep? There must be answers, somewhere.)

It is not too early to make a serious and genuine plea for reservation of Victoria's most distinctive asset—courtesy. I refer to the right of everyone, resident or visiting, to have privacy in his or her own affairs. Last year certain "motion picture stars" were practically mobbed on downtown streets. I will be surprised if they come here again. I like, rather, the way the United Kingdom treated Colonel Charles Lindbergh. Britons permitted him to live his life in peace. If Victoria is to make a successful bid for residents and for visitors, the time is now too soon to campaign for sanity in the reception of well known people. Mobbing visitors in stores, in hotels, and on the street is a serious exhibition of bad taste. It is not hospitality, but curiosity. After all, so far as motion picture stars are concerned, they are stars and not comets. They can do without the wandering galleries that look like a tail in their wake. It is still "Victoria, the beautiful." Help to keep it so.

At Mexico, Texas, last week, 700 children held a sit-down strike in a motion picture house, because an advertised attraction, "Penrod and Sam," was not on hand and could not therefore be shown. They held their seats after a too-brief matinee, while adults clamored to get in for the later performance. After a forty-five-minute demonstration the children had their way; more films were shown. I suspect, though, they got the idea from their elders, somewhere.

WILL CONSIDER REFORESTATION

Hon. A. W. Gray to Meet Crown Grant Timber Operators This Week

As an outgrowth of discussions before the forestry committee of the Legislature at the last two sessions, the Provincial Government will open conference with timber operators of Crown granted lands on Thursday, at a meeting here to discuss what can be done about reforestation. Hon. A. W. Gray will preside.

At the last session, the Government introduced a bill to amend the Forest Act, giving the Province right of entry onto private lands in the interests of conservation and restocking of natural growth. The operative clause in the measure was withdrawn by the Government, however, before the act became law. At that time full discussion of the subject of reforestation was pledged, the coming conference being one result.

NOT RESTOCKING
Provincial reports for some years past have pointed with growing concern to the fact that cut and burned over lands in the Coast area are not restocking adequately. From latest reports, 500,000 acres in the Coast region will remain barren for some time to come, while a further 400,000 acres are only partially restocking. Natural regeneration is regarded as the only feasible means of perpetuating forest cover. It is to discuss this and analogous problems that the coming conference has been called, provincial officials said yesterday.

The time used is Pacific standard time for the 12th meridian west. It is counted in 15-minute intervals from midnight to midnight. The figures for high water are to distinguish high water from low water. When the tide is in the table, the tide rises or falls continuously during two successive tidal periods without turning. The figures in feet and tenths of a foot, measured from the average level of low water.

To find the depth of water on the sill of the Esquimalt drydock, add 18.5 feet to the height of high water as above given.

INSTITUTE BOARD IN FIRST MEETING

SALTSpring ISLAND, March 9.—The first board meeting of the Islands' Agricultural Fruit Growers and Farmers' Institute was held in Mahon Hall, Ganges, the president, W. M. Palmer, in the chair.

From those appointed on the committee at the annual meeting, the following officers were elected: President, R. O. King; vice-president, R. W. Crawford; treasurer, W. M. Palmer; secretary, Frank Stevens, with Horace Stevens as janitor.

It was arranged to hold a special general meeting on Wednesday, March 24, to decide on the alteration of the name of the association, to discuss all business in connection with the hall electric light system, including the wiring of the building, and to arrange the year's activities.

Jane Dixon Says:

ROUND-UP DAY PRESENTS: THE PROBLEM OF A WIFE, WHOSE HUSBAND, AFTER SEVENTEEN YEARS OF MARRIED LIFE, HAS GONE WITH A MAN NINE YEARS AND YET IS TOO SHY TO INDICATE THAT SHE CARES FOR HIM—THE MERE NAME OF A COLLEGE DOES NOT INSURE EMPLOYMENT—A WOMAN WHO IS DISGUSTED BECAUSE HER HUSBAND REFUSES TO PLAY CARDS—A GIRL OF SIXTEEN WHO WAS WISE ENOUGH NOT TO ELOPE WITH A MAN WITHOUT A JOB

Round-Up Day.
Our day for answering a number of questions about a number of things.

If your question is not answered directly, read—reply that do appear and see if one of them does not apply to your problem.

N.D.—There is only one of two courses you can follow. Either you must go on as you have, ignoring your husband's affair with the other woman and trusting that his promise to you he will never see her again will be kept; or you should take direct action to discover whether your suspicion that he does see her and that she is waiting to join him as soon as he locates a job, is well-founded. You had better insist upon going to live wherever he is working. If he loves you and the children he will find a way to have his family with him. Your seventeen years of happy marriage is a fortunate circumstance, but it does not insure the future of your union. Husbands have been constant for twice that length of time and then in the winter of life, have begun kicking up their heels and trying to act like spring lambs gamboling on the green. Isn't there some trusted and substantial man in your family who can talk the situation over with your husband so that he will realize he must deal with more than a frightened and hurt wife who will bear with him perforce while clinging frantically in her love, her home, her hope for her children's safety and happiness. You will have to put your pride in your pocket if you determine to safeguard your future.

Miss L.W.—This column does not furnish names and addresses for purpose of correspondence. This rule has been made to safeguard you as well as to maintain the integrity and the dignity of the column. Look around you. Discover new ways to extend friendship and you'll surely find a new friend. Best of luck.

Sue—It does seem that in nine years you should have overcome your shyness sufficiently to convey to the young man your interests in him. Since the girl you believe he does not return his love, there is no reason why you should not follow your heart and seek to enlist his attention. Better stop being so much of a sit-by-the-fire and embark on a policy of going places and doing things. Be frankly pleased to see the young man when you meet him and make no secret of the fact you enjoy his conversation. You can be natural without being obvious. To gain interest we must be interesting.

Ellen—Go to your State university by all means and be grateful for the opportunity. Many of our most distinguished men and women are educational products of such institutions of learning. You will not be employed for the name of your college, but you will be in other human associations, the safest and sanest rule is live and let live.

Disgusted Wife—If your husband "raises sand" when you ask him to play cards, why ask him? There is nothing unsocial about a lack of interest in cards. Your husband likes bowling. You like bridge. Easy enough. Let him bowl. You play bridge. In marriage as in other human associations, the safest and sanest rule is live and let live.

Sixteen—Of course you were wise, deciding not to elope until the boy friend has a job and a "little money ahead." Love is thrilling but it's not very filling. Husbands with habitually empty stomachs have a way of losing interest in love-making and of growing somewhat peevish over a continued lack of victuals. You are both young—you can afford to wait a bit for your dreams to come true.

PUPILS SHOW RARE TALENT

Dominion Academy of Music Students Heard in Recital At Empress Hotel

A school of distinguished standards whose programmes invariably attract much attention from a discriminating musical public is the Dominion Academy of Music, of which Stanley Shale is principal. The Empress Hotel ballroom was filled to capacity, and an even more enthusiastic audience than usual was present to applaud the score of performers on the occasion of the annual students' recital last evening.

It was a characteristically well-prepared programme. Presented in two parts, the first for students of fifteen years and under, the second part for seniors, it was built, musically, from works by the best of the classical and modern composers, and as in addition to the piano and vocal numbers there were recitations, there was no lack of variety and wide range of interest.

IN TWO PARTS

Beginning with the little five years' old girl who opened the recital, the juniors were constantly confident, natural and well rehearsed, none attempting anything beyond his powers. The finger technique was easy and certain, and even at this stage the pupils gave evidence of having laid the foundations of the fine tonal beauty, clean phrasing and analytical approach which are such distinguishing features of the more advanced students' work.

Of these last, too much praise can hardly be given. In three or four instances they rank among the best virtuosos and musicians of the island, playing with marked distinction, authority and emotional and technical qualities. As already mentioned, tonal beauty is an outstanding characteristic of the school's work, and in two or three instances it has been developed to an extraordinary degree with brilliancy of execution, lovely passage work and sensitive appreciation of all the niceties of phrasing, style and musical atmosphere.

The vocalists and elocutionists also brought pleasing qualities of style, diction and taste to their work.

Following is the programme:

ALLOWS SEIZURE IN RETALIATION

German Cabinet Authorizes Acquisition of Foreign Property in Germany as Safeguard

BERLIN, March 9 (P).—Seizure of foreign property in Germany in retaliation for expropriation of German-owned lands abroad was authorized by the German Cabinet today.

Although a communiqué issued after the meeting gave no details, informed persons said they believed the measure was aimed at neighboring countries which might expropriate property owned by Germans close to the German border in compliance with defence laws.

AIMED AT FRANCE

Presumably the law was directed particularly at France, which has authorized expropriation of land along the Franco-German frontier in cases where the property might be used for war purposes.

Officials said the Cabinet might consider tomorrow an answer to Great Britain's request for Germany's ideas on a new Western European security agreement.

Britain has been waiting for Germany's suggestions on a pact to replace the Locarno Treaty, scrapped by Germany when she remilitarized the Rhineland a year ago.

LOUIS WEST IS SENT TO JAIL

Magistrate Hall Finds Accused's Influence Was Bad Upon Other Boys

Louis West, who pleaded guilty to a long list of thefts of automobiles, of bicycles and various other articles, will spend eighteen months in jail. In the city police court yesterday, two additional charges were laid against the accused of stealing ornaments belonging to John Hutchison of less than the value of $25, and of retaining possession a bicycle the owner of which was not known.

He pleaded guilty to each of the charges. In addition to these, there were three cases of theft to which the accused had previously pleaded guilty in the city police court, and two in Oak Bay court. It was pointed out that there had been a previous conviction in 1934, when the accused was allowed suspended sentence.

HAD BAD INFLUENCE

Magistrate H. C. Hall said that evidently the offences were deliberately carried out and that the accused had also exercised his influence to draw other boys into the crimes in some instances.

On each of the thefts from F. Rainsford, Len Wagstaff and Miss Benson, the court imposed terms of eighteen months with hard labor, the terms to run concurrently with the longer sentences so that the term served would be eighteen months in all.

OAK BAY OFFENCES

Following the city court, a sitting of the Oak Bay court was held when the accused was brought up for sentences on two charges on which he was convicted in the Oak Bay court similar to those in the city court.

The magistrate said that he had seriously considered whether he should give the accused a penitentiary term, but he had decided finally to make it a jail sentence. Accordingly, he gave him six months on each of the Oak Bay cases, to run concurrently with the city sentences.

C.N.R. CAPITAL BILL APPROVED

Measure Ready for House—Allows for Revision of Capital Structure

OTTAWA, March 9 (P).—The bill to revise downward the capital structure of the Canadian National Railways, was approved in amended form today by the railways and shipping committee of the House of Commons, and now will be dealt with finally in the House itself.

W. A. Walsh (Cons., Montreal-Mount Royal), who has consistently opposed the measure, carried on a practically single-handed argument against it today. He agreed to its being reported to the House only after he had been assured he could renew his attack against it in the Chamber itself.

DUPLICATION REMOVED

The C.N.R. balance sheet and the public accounts of the Dominion at present both contain, among the liabilities, $1,500,000,000 of past advances by the Dominion to the railway. This duplication is to be removed by the bill. Writing off of worthless capital stock, control and preservation of the Government's prior rights in a security trust are also provided for.

At a previous meeting the committee approved a motion that an appendix showing all assistance ever given any railways in Canada should be attached to the public accounts, but not to the balance sheet of the C.N.R.

be held at the home of R. D. Harvey, Hazel Street, on Monday, April 12.

To Combine Trucks—By combining parts of two work trucks and installing a heavy Buick engine, which is to be purchased at a cost of sixty dollars, the Saanich Council will make serviceable one truck, which, according to Ernest Bleathmen, mechanic, should last out the year. Total cost of these repairs were placed at $200. It is contended this amount will be paid for out of service rentals.

Eagles Meet Tonight—Victoria Aeris, No. 12, F.O.E., will hold a special meeting tonight at 8 o'clock, in the Eagles Hall, 1319 Government Street, when they will be honored by a visit of the state president, Alfred R. Shavland, Spokane, accompanied by several state officers. R. B. Graham will preside. Following the business session, a social will be held, with Dr. Hugh Clarke in charge of the entertainment committee.

Musical Entertainers—Introduced to the members of the Kiwanis Club as the "Flourish Boys," members of the club, to the strains of the "Men of Harlech," rendered a choice programme at yesterday's club luncheon. The group included Murray Martindale, Dr. H. Dumont, Fred M. McGregor, Ralph Matthews, Dr. J. E. McGee and Ed Mallek. Ernie Fullerton assisted with accordion selections. Austin Curtis led the community singing.

Guild of Health—As Dr. Rowe, warden of the Guild of Health, will be present at the meeting on Thursday, when Mr. Lamont, rector of Holy Trinity, Vancouver, and president of the Vancouver branch, will lecture, the council of the guild hope that there will be a large attendance of members, not only for the privilege of hearing Mr. Lamont, but also for the opportunity of bidding farewell to Dr. Rowe, who is leaving for an extended tour of the branches a few days later.

Victoria Lists Changed—Upwards of 7,000 alterations have been made in the provincial voters' list in Victoria in the present drive for re-registration. George N. Moust, deputy registrar of voters, intimated yesterday. Today has been set as the last day of the special drive, with lists as amended to go before the monthly court of revision on Monday. The deputy registrar office at 628 1/2 Port Street will be kept open until Thursday evening to accommodate voters missed by canvassers.

Praises Victoria—"Victoria, A Bit of Old England, Takes Life Easy," is the headline of an article descriptive of this city written by Arthur Evans in the February 14 issue of The Chicago Tribune. "No one is in a rush," the article says. "Philosophized a taxi driver: 'Nobody is going anywhere in less than an hour, anyhow. Haste is undignified. Go slow. Live longer.'"

The clipping, which has been sent to Frank Gioia of the Victoria and Island Publicity Bureau, is two columns in length, and is accompanied by a three-column cut.

Forester Coming—Victor Grenning, chief of the forestry department of the State of Queensland, is expected in this city in the near future. He came here last December with Hon. Percy Pease, acting premier of Queensland, to inspect forestry operations in Canada and the United States. After visiting forest product laboratories in Wisconsin and Louisiana, they conferred with Federal authorities in Ottawa. Owing to pressure of official duties, Mr. Pease was forced to hurry home. Mr. Grenning will confer with E. C. Manning, Provincial chief forester, while here.

Hon. F. M. MacPherson Says Federal Projects in B.C. Completed Last Year

British Columbia has already benefited from $500,000 in road work announced in the House of Commons this week on the Vancouver-Revelstoke section of the Trans-Canada Highway, Nanaimo-Mendocino Bay and on the Parksville-Tofino route, Hon. F. M. MacPherson said yesterday. The work was done last year.

Current estimates before Parliament are to approve of final settlements on an agreement entered then and in which the Dominion paid half of the cost.

OFF TO OTTAWA

Mr. MacPherson left last evening for the mainland, on his way to Ottawa at the request of Premier Pattullo to discuss highway work with Hon. Norman Rogers, Federal Minister of Labor. One of the points remaining to be settled, he said, was what proportion of cost the Dominion would agree to bear in connection with Provincial road works this year, under relief employment and other heads.

Borrowing $3,000,000 on its own account at Toronto, the Province expects Federal contributions to enlarge the sum that will finally be available for work in what is expected to be an election year.

Pro Patria Branch of Canadian Legion Endorses Move of District Council

Endorsement was given the stand of the district council of the Canadian Legion in co-operating with the city jubilee committee with regard to any special ceremonies they might plan for the seventy-fifth anniversary of the city's founding, at the meeting of Pro Patria Branch, Canadian Legion, last night. A letter from the jubilee committee was referred to the finance committee for report.

Hon. Eric W. Hamber, Lieutenant-Governor, will be the guest of honor at a smoking concert in the clubrooms next Wednesday. A. E. Hull, president of the branch, is in charge of the programme arrangements.

IMPERIAL DIVISION

Following a discussion on the status of Imperial veterans, the meeting was again informed of the existence of the Imperial division in the Canadian Legion, under the presidency of Lieutenant-Colonel Norman Dingle, Ottawa, and also the appointment of Captain George Kermack, an ex-Imperial officer, in the Legion bureau at Ottawa, whose duties are confined solely to the adjustment of all affairs affecting Imperials in the Dominion. This latter officer is the sole channel of communication for ex-Imperials to the British authorities in London.

The branch also endorsed the stand of the Dominion command in disassociating itself from a movement, recently promoted, to request the Government to provide a bonus for all members of the C.E.P. whether unemployed or not.

Regret was voiced over the resignation, through ill health, of J. M. Ross from the sick visiting committee.

GIVEN ASSURANCE

Letters were read from Hon. Dr. S. P. Tolmie, M.P., and J. S. Taylor, M.P., in reply to a telegram from C. A. Gill, secretary of the branch. They said they had been assured by the Minister of Pensions that the interim report of the Veterans' Assistance Commission would be tabled for discussion at the present sitting of the Federal House. Two new members were admitted to membership.

He made the contribution conditional on the league's ability to raise an additional $100,000 ($500,000) from other sources.

Musical Festival of Value to Community Women's Club Told

Mrs. J. Hebdon Gillespie Gives Scholarly Talk, Illustrated by Interesting Records, on Importance of Movement to Victoria

THE history, purpose, significance and achievements of the Musical Festival movement, which in its inception dates back many centuries to the assemblies of bards, minstrels and poets held in Wales before the dawn of the Christian Era, was reviewed by Mrs. J. Hebdon Gillespie, president of the Victoria Musical Festival Association, in her scholarly address on "The Value of the Festival Movement to the Community," given before the Women's Canadian Club at the Empress Hotel yesterday afternoon.

Speaking both as president of the local festival association and as a native daughter of Victoria, Mrs. Gillespie stressed the value and importance of the festival movement to this community, urging her audience, as individuals, to stand behind the enterprise and give every possible support. In the same capacity she also expressed deep appreciation of the Women's Canadian Club's co-operation and interest in the past, this being recently supplemented by its decision to give still another trophy for the forthcoming eleventh annual festival at the end of April.

MEANING OF FESTIVAL

The lecturer defined a musical festival as a gathering of the best type of amateur talent in the community. It was essentially a community affair, differing from a festival of music in that the entrants were competitors, subject to adjudication, whereas in the festival of music there was no element of competition.

Suggesting the ideal spirit sought by those in charge of musical festivals, she quoted Walford Davies' definition that "in musical festivals the object is not to gain a prize nor defeat a rival, but to pace one another on the road to excellence." "There is a marked improvement in the good taste in music since the inception of the musical festival movement," asserted the lecturer, in speaking of the effect of the festivals here. She also spoke appreciatively of the help the local committee had received from George H. Deane, city school inspector, and from Stanley P. Bulley, supervisor of music in the city schools. Much valuable advice and help had been

SOCIAL STABILIZER

Mrs. William Fisher, founder of the festival of music movement in the United States, where there were now twenty centres holding annual festivals, had spoken of music as a "social stabilizer." It was the "handmaid of religion, and might equally serve civics and give impetus to social reforms and good government." H. Ley, a British musician, had maintained that the competitive musical festivals had conclusively proved in recent years that any small village in the country could render Wesley, Battisill, Handel, Bach or Brahms, provided they had the local enthusiast who would undertake to lead them.

Mrs. Gillespie illustrated her talk with some choice gramophone records, played on an instrument kindly lent by Fletcher Bros. Among these were a sample of the oldest part-music known (1286), "Summer Is a Comin' In," a sixteenth-century madrigal written by John Dowland, with virginal accompaniment; "The King's Hunt," written by John Bull, composer of the British National Anthem, also with virginal accompaniment; "Jerusalem," sung by the Chapel Royal Choir (words by Blake, music by Parry); and "Mercury," and part of "Uranus the Mystic," from Gustav Holst's "Planets."

Mrs. Allison Peabody moved the vote of thanks, and Mrs. S. J. Willis presented a bouquet to the lecturer.

Tea Time Parties Replace Cocktails

LONDON, March 9.—Instead of "drop in for cocktails," the hospitable phrase in London today is, "drop in for tea between four and five." Just as in pre-war days, from 4 to 5 o'clock is becoming a freer time in town houses. This return to the tea table has been led by the Queen. Norfolk House, home of the Duke of Norfolk, even before the advent of its new chateau maintained the tea hour even at the height of the cocktail era. Several notable hostesses, among them Mrs. Stanley Baldwin, have arranged tea parties this season.

United Church W.M.S. Opens Annual Meeting

Delegates From Up-Island Attending Sessions Here This Week—Mrs. G. E. Forbes, Toronto, Dominion President, Is Guest Speaker

Speaking in a general way of the year's work, Mrs. W. J. Graham, president of the United Church W.M.S., told those attending the opening session last evening, in Metropolitan Church, that 1936 has been a most successful year and the financial objective had been reached. This gratifying result had been brought about by the co-operation of the members of the churches in the district who had done so much in assisting the women.

Mrs. Graham cordially welcomed the delegates from Up-Island and introduced Mr. Arthur Lee, chairman of the Victoria Presbytery, who brought greetings to the Presbytery. He heartily congratulated the women upon their well-managed organization, and made special reference to their broad vision, without which no organization could succeed.

GUEST SPEAKER

The speaker of the evening was Mrs. G. E. Forbes, Toronto, Dominion president of the United Church W.M.S., who gave a fascinating account of a four-month trip made by herself and her husband to the mission centres of the Orient in Japan, Korea, Honan, South and West China. By means of impressive word pictures, made even more vivid by a series of beautifully colored lantern slides showing scenes in the countries visited, Mrs. Forbes imparted much of the "magic of the Orient," about which she spoke so feelingly.

She spoke of the customs of the country, of the wonderful work which is being done in the mission schools, the kindergartens, the

SIMPLE TO SEW Social and Personal

Edited by LAURA I. BALDT, A.M.
For many years Assistant Professor of Household Arts, Teachers College, Columbia University, New York, N.Y.

You'll feel so delightfully gay and smart in this short sleeved print dress.

Compliments will fly about the individuality and flattery of the shirred shoulders. Slimness through the waist area is assured by the youthful high-waisted bodice effect.

The flared skirt is gracefully full and tricky. The front and back panels add charming height to your figure.

Wonderfully becoming is the rolled collar. It offers exciting changes with the lingerie peasant vestee of baliste or organdie. Note the small view how it rolls and forms a deep V. The vestee is included in the pattern. For Summer, this model is as smart as can be in a cotton challis print.

And it's so simple to sew, you'll have it finished in a jiffy. The sleeves and bodice cut in one! The Detailed Sewing Guide accompanies the pattern.

Style No. D-3481 is designed for sizes 14, 16, 18, 20 years; 32, 34, 36, 38, 40, 42, 44 and 46-inch bust. Size 36 requires three and one-half yards of 39-inch material with four and one-quarter yards of binding.

The Spring and Summer Fashion Book is filled with lovely designs for everyday wear, which are easy and inexpensive to make.

with violating its pledge to ban the shipment of "volunteers" to Spain.

ENEMY PRESSES HARD

The enemy was pressing hard tonight against Government lines, flinging Italian troops armed with automatic rifles into the battle, the defence junta declared in a communique. It said the Republicans were resisting "tenaciously."

Several Italian prisoners taken in yesterday's fighting were reported to belong to regular army divisions which landed at Cadiz on February 22, two days after the international ban on volunteers to Spain went into effect. Two Italian tanks were seized, it was claimed.

The Italian army contingents of 8,000 to 10,000 men were brought from Cadiz to Burgos and Seville and then ordered to Guadalajara, according to Mija.

municated with the insurgent cruiser Canarias, which reported she had sunk the Mar Cantabrico.

The Echo and Eclipse returned today to St. Jean de Luz, France.

The officers said they believed there were two United States citizens aboard the Mar Cantabrico. They were said to be aircraft experts taken along from Vera Cruz when the freighter sailed on February 19.

SAILOR ESCAPED

Previously a Spanish sailor who had escaped from the Mar Cantabrico and the skipper of a French fishing vessel, which had been at the scene of the encounter, testified they had seen the munitions ship being taken to port by her captor.

Juan Boo, the sailor from the captured freighter, was rescued by Borel's ship after he had jumped into the sea. An Italian with him drowned.

The rest of the crew of 150 and seventeen passengers, including two "North Americans," had been transferred to the Canarias, Boo declared. "All the Spaniards were shot," he said.

"Quality always tells"

There is nothing like OVALTINE

Ovaltine, the famous tonic food beverage, is approved by doctors and dieticians the world over, being used in hospitals, sanatoriums and private homes in more than 100 countries for—

- SLEEPLESSNESS
- NERVOUSNESS
- MAL-NUTRITION
- CONVALESCENTS
- POOR APPETITE
- EXPECTANT AND NURSING MOTHERS

THE world-wide acceptance of Ovaltine by physicians and dieticians, by hospitals and nursing homes, not only in Canada but all over the civilized world marks the triumph of natural methods over artificial ones. It also indicates that in the homes of countless thousands of families Ovaltine is recognized as the tonic food beverage supreme, the highest quality in its class.

Ovaltine fills every requirement of advanced scientific thought to-day, and no other food beverage has received such universal endorsement. Imitations are numerous, and some are made to look like Ovaltine, but there are vitally important differences. For example:

Ovaltine does not contain any Household Sugar to give it bulk and reduce the cost. Sugar is cheap and can be added in the home if desired. Nor does Ovaltine contain a large percentage of cocoa—or chocolate (which in itself is simply sugar and cocoa.) Nor does it contain starch.

Ovaltine is sold by all druggists, grocers and department stores. Simply telephone and have a tin delivered to-day. Take it in a cup of hot milk at bed-time to-night, and see for yourself how refreshed you will feel tomorrow morning, after a night of restful, health-giving sleep.

SPEEDING UP AIR SERVICE

Northwest Airlines Cutting
Three Hours Off Seattle-
Chicago Flight

A new super-air liner that will cut three hours off the Seattle to Chicago flight is described by Croil Hunter, vice-president of Northwest Airlines, who announces many advances by his company this year in both schedules and service.

The new air liners are Lockheed "14" Super Electras, which are claimed to be the fastest and safest transport planes in use. They will have a cruising speed of 230 to 235 miles per hour, and although designed for only ten passengers, give the utmost comfort and roominess for each passenger by a new type of swiveling reclining armchair. Express compartments will be equally commodious, taking single pieces as large as a steamer trunk, while a ton of mail and express can be carried. Other features to be introduced are a stewardess service, and installation of robot pilots and direction-finding radio equipment.

Instead of two round trips daily between Seattle and Chicago, three transcontinental schedules will be maintained, states Mr. Hunter.

It is expected the new planes will be used exclusively for service between Seattle and Chicago, allowing only three stops en route.

Commander Nicholls, Well-

COMMANDER A. S. M. NICHOLLS, R.N.R.

MONTREAL, March 9.—The appointment of Commander A. S. M. Nicholls as marine superintendent, Canadian National (West Indies) Steamships, with supervision over vessels of the Ontario Car Ferry Company and Canada Atlantic Transit Company, with headquarters at Montreal, was announced today by R. B. Teakle, general manager of the company.

Other changes in the staff include the appointment of M. P. Scott, formerly mechanical assistant, department of steamships and car ferries, Toronto, to the position of superintendent engineer of the above mentioned interests, with headquarters at Montreal. In this position he succeeds W. C. Jarvis, who is now transferred to Halifax, N.S., as superintendent in charge of marine and engineering departments of the company.

BORN IN ENGLAND

Commander A. S. M. Nicholls, O.B.E., R.D., R.N.R., was born in London, Eng., in 1881. Passing out of the training ship Conway in 1898, he was appointed midshipman in the Royal Naval Reserve and served two years' apprenticeship in the four-masted bark Clan Galbraith. In 1900, he joined the Head Line of Belfast and sailed as junior officer for nine years, after which he completed his Naval Reserve training. He joined the Canadian Northern Steamships in October, 1910, and was appointed to the Royal George. Two years later he became chief officer of this ship and remained with her until the outbreak of war in 1914, when he was assigned by the Admiralty to service in the White Sea, and later with the Grand Fleet and in the submarine service. In 1919 he joined the Canadian Government Merchant Marine as master of the Canadian Ranger in trans-Atlantic service.

In the following year he was appointed assistant marine superintendent at Liverpool and for the next ten years as marine superintendent at London, where he was made commander, R.N.R., in 1930. Captain Nicholls was transferred to Vancouver, B.C., as marine superintendent of the Pacific Coast services of the company. In 1932 he went to Sydney, Australia, in a similar capacity with the C.G.M.M., then to Halifax, N.S., last September as marine superintendent of the Canadian National (West Indies) services, from which post he has just been transferred to take his present appointment.

VETERAN OF SEA CALLED

Captain Josiah Gosse, Well-
Known Coast Mariner,
Passed Away

Another one of the few remaining men who followed the fur-seal in the North Pacific when Victoria was the flourishing centre of the sealing industry passed away on Monday night at his home near Esquimalt Lagoon at the age of eighty-five.

The late Captain Josiah Gosse, who was born in Newfoundland, spent the greater part of his life at sea. He sailed out of St. John's in wooden ships before the days of steam, and had many stories to tell of close calls in the ice.

When he was sixteen, he was aboard his uncle's ship, the Rescue, which was sealing in company with the Huntsman, when a storm overtook them and the closing ice caught the Huntsman and forced her over a reef in the Strait of Belle Isle, drowning all the crew except one man.

Believing the fate of the men on the Huntsman would be theirs, the crew of the Rescue, abandoned her and took to the ice, leaving young Gosse, his uncle, and a few others aboard. Fortunately the Rescue escaped the fate of the Huntsman and got free.

In his younger days Captain Gosse fished the Grand Banks with the late Captain George Heater, and he was then a dory-mate of Captain Will Heater, who is still skippering whaling vessels out of Victoria.

Coming to the Pacific Coast in the eighties, Captain Gosse made Victoria his home when he was not absent on sealing voyages. He followed sealing for years, and among other vessels he captained the schooner Otter. When the sealing business was closed by international treaty, he joined the coast service of Canadian Pacific, and remained with it for four years, part of the time being master of the St. Otter.

AT ESQUIMALT LIGHT
Leaving the Canadian Pacific, he took over the duties of lightkeeper at Fishguard Light, Esquimalt Harbor, a position which he held until the light was made automatic. Since then, he has lived with his wife at the Lagoon.

Captain Gosse is survived by his widow, at home; two sons, Arthur Hamilton Gosse, Vancouver, and Douglas McNaughton Gosse, Victoria, and one stepdaughter, Mrs. Evelyn Hannam, Colwood; four grandchildren; one brother, Mark Gosse, Vancouver, and one sister, Mrs. Victoria Alcock, Vancouver.

The funeral will be held in Hayward's B.C. Funeral Chapel on Saturday at 2 p.m. Rev. Dr. Howard conducting the service. Interment will be made in the family plot in Ross Bay Cemetery.

He was attended by Dr. Rush, who after setting his broken thigh at the Gulf Islands Hospital, advised an X-ray examination. The ferry Cy X-ray was chartered to convey the little patient to Rest Haven, where he is reported as progressing satisfactorily.

TOURIST CRUISE
Special cruises take Alaskan tourists next season to the Pribilof Islands, scene of the world's largest seal rookery, according to H. N. Peterson, general passenger agent for the Alaska Steamship Company. The special voyages will be made in the company's famous steamship Victoria. A similar cruise was made for the first time in history in 1934.

The Victoria will leave Seattle on July 2 and August 7. She will go directly to the Aleutian Peninsula, calling at Dutch Harbor and Unalaska, then steam across the Bering Sea and stop at St. Paul, largest of the Pribilof Islands. After leaving St. Paul, she will head for Nome. A short stay at East Cape, Siberia, the most easterly point on the Asiatic Continent, is also scheduled. The return trip will take the passengers to Juneau, where they will see the Taku Glacier and pass through the Inside Passage back to Seattle.

Death of Morenz Is Great Shock To Hockey World

Body of Famous Centreman of Canadiens to Lie in State in Montreal Forum for Three and a Half Hours Tomorrow—Messages Received From All Parts—Testimonial Game Is Arranged

By E. C. PHILAN
Canadian Press Staff Writer
MONTREAL, March 9 (P).—In Montreal's Forum, home of the game he loved so well, Howie Morenz called the greatest hockey player of them all will spend his last hours on earth.

A public funeral is planned for the fiery little centreman who came here as a boy from Stratford, Ont., to play his first professional hockey game with Montreal Canadiens fourteen years ago.

From 11 a.m. Thursday until 2:30, his body will lie in state over the ice surface that once echoed the ring of his flying skates. Then, after the service, the body will be taken to Mount Royal Cemetery for burial.

Tonight, the world of sport was still shocked at the sudden passing of Morenz last night from a heart attack. Messages of sympathy from all over the continent poured into the office of Cecil Hart, Canadiens manager, who first signed the "Straker of Stratford" to a pro contract.

MANY MESSAGES

The messages were brief, sincere. Indicative of the stunned grief of the writers—"most popular player"—"most admired"—"idol of Young Canada"—"greatest centreman in the game."

"Never in the history of our national game has such glamour surrounded one of its players," wired Leo Dandurand, former owner of the Canadiens, from New Orleans.

His beloved Canadiens play Maroons here tonight. Both teams and officials will wear black armbands out of respect to Howie and a two-minute silence is to be observed in the great rink.

Gone is that flashing, sparkling speed that won the sobriquets—"Stratford Flash," "Mitchell Meteor"—but his spirit will be with Canadians on the ice. One of the last to visit Howie in hospital was his linemate of a dozen N.H.L. seasons, Aurel Joliat, and Joliat today recalled his promise, "I'll be up there watching you, in the playoffs."

Lessening the sadness of the sports world tonight was the realization that Morenz was happy this last season, happy to be back with the club that took him to the heights. In 1934, Morenz, already a veteran as hockeyists go, was thought to be slipping. He was turned over to Chicago Hawks in a player deal and the heart seemed to go out of him. Next year he was with Rangers, of New York, and got nowhere.

But last Fall Cecil Hart came back to the helm of Canadiens, and he knew Howie. Wanted him back. And until the fatal game of January 28 when his leg snapped in a collision with the boards, Howie's play was brilliant.

So Howie was spared the agony of quitting as a second-rater. He knew, his mates and his opponents knew, he was on top when he went out.

There will be no need for "memorial" games to keep his memory living in the hockey realm. But there will be such games, nevertheless, and when Morenz Night comes around at the Forum the French-Canadian fans will be there to compare the future greats with the greatness of Howie.

GAME ARRANGED

A testimonial game already had been arranged for next Fall between Canadiens and Maroons. Tommy Gorman, manager of the Forum, had a catch in his voice as he said today, "I guess we'll call it a memorial game now."

Frank Calder, N.H.L. president, was one of the many who paid special tribute to Morenz tonight. He no doubt remembered one night in Ottawa when he said: "I never knew him to do a mean thing but I do recall that more than once when an opponent had transgressed against him, Howie was the first to intercede in his behalf."

CAMBRIDGE IN FAST WORKOUT

Light Blues Race From Hammersmith to Putney in Exceptional Time

LONDON, March 9 (P).—Under ideal rowing conditions Cambridge University's boat crew rowed today from Hammersmith Bridge to the Putney Bridge just two seconds over the record of 7 mins. 18 secs.

The Light Blues, facing a strong challenge from Oxford in the March 24 race, broke the record from Hammersmith Bridge to Mile Post, covering the distance in 2 mins. 51 secs. Cambridge also held the old mark of 2 mins. 54 secs. established in 1933.

The crew showed precision with a good length of stroke maintained throughout the distance.

The Cambridge time of 7 mins. 20 secs. could not fairly be compared with Oxford's 7 mins. 35 secs. yesterday as the Dark Blues braved a bitter northeast wind and were hampered by water churned by tugs and barges.

Oxford held a light workout for about two minutes.

CRICKET IS DRAWN

SYDNEY, Australia, March 9 (P).—Hitting up 103 runs for the touring Marylebone Cricket Club team in a drawn match against a combined university eleven today, Wally Hammond scored his seventh century of the Australian tour to date.

The Englishmen scored 212 for nine, declared; their opponents replying with 169 for seven.

The Gloucestershire veteran made his big score in ninety minutes, hitting three 6's and fourteen 4's. Rain prevented resumption of play today until mid-afternoon.

BRUINS TRIM WINGS IN DECISIVE STYLE; CANADIENS BEATEN

Art Ross' Crew Hands Detroit One-Sided Lacing, 6-1—Frenchmen Lose to Maroons, 4-1—Impressive Ceremony for Late Howie Morenz—Rangers Beat Americans in Overtime

BOSTON, March 9 (P).—Overcoming a season-long hoodoo, Boston Bruins gained their first win in seven starts as they defeated Detroit Red Wings tonight, their 6-1 whipping keeping the champions from clinching first place in the National Hockey League's United States section.

After a scoreless first period, Gordon Pettenger opened the way for Bruins by drawing a tripping penalty in the second period and while he was off Dit Clapper scored twice in sixty-three seconds. When Pettenger was freed, Jack Portland caged the third Boston goal.

Ebbie Goodfellow saved the Wings from a shut-out by converting Scotty Bowman's assist in 13:37.

A deceptive shot from the blue line by Charlie Sands, half way through the final period brought the fourth Boston counter and before the game ended, rookie Porky Dumart, registered. Howie Morenz banged in the sixth tally.

Before the opening face-off, both teams lined up on the blue lines, the lights were dimmed and the crowd stood in silence as buglers sounded Taps for Howie Morenz, great center of Montreal Canadiens who died last night.

Summary
First period—Scoring, none. Penalties—None.
Second period—1. Boston, Clapper (Gettiffe), 8:09; 2. Boston, Clapper (Gettiffe), 9:12; 3. Boston, Portland (Seattle), 14:47; 4. Detroit, Goodfellow (Bowman), 13:37.
Penalties—Clapper, Pettenger, Mantha.

Third period—3. Boston, Sands (Smith), 9:22; 4. Boston, Dumart (Clapper), 14:18; 7. Boston, Smith, 15:00.
Penalties—Shields, Mantha, Goldsworthy, Portland.

MAROONS BEAT CANADIENS

MONTREAL, March 9 (P).—Montreal Maroons, still hoping for a sectional first place in the fading National Hockey League race, scored a 4-1 victory over Canadiens tonight.

The 10,000 fans, most of them Canadians supporters, paid impressive tribute to Howie Morenz in simple ceremonies before the game, leaving Maroons' triumph an anti-Canadian idyl.

They stood in silence for two minutes in the dimly-lit arena while a bugle and drums sounded Taps after President Ernest Savard, of Canadiens, had told them of the death of Morenz, "A gentleman and the greatest hockey player of all time."

Then the puck was faced off and five minutes later Marvin Wendworth shot Maroons to a lead they never relinquished. While the weakened Canadiens, minus Aurel Joliat and Toe Blake because of injuries, fared futilely against Goalie Bill Beveridge, Maroons ran their lead to 3-0 in the second period on goals by Stew Evans and Gus Marker.

Armand Mondou scored the lone Canadian tally in the ninth minute of the third, but Markers' second offset that third marker later.

Playing, perhaps, with the memory of Morenz to lead them on, Canadians' outburst and outplayed their city rivals most of the way. They showered Beveridge with pucks but couldn't get past him.

Summary
First period—1. Maroons, Wendworth, 5:28.
Penalty—Conacher.
Second period—2. Maroons, Evans (Gracie, Cain), 8:52; 3. Maroons, Marker (Cain), 8:52.
Penalties—Mantha, Evans, Brown.
Third period—4. Canadiens, Mondou (Mantha, Desjais), 6:05; 5. Maroons, Marker (Evans, Gracie), 16:20.
Penalties—Trotter, McKenzie, Russell, Robinson.

RANGERS IN VICTORY

NEW YORK, March 9 (P).—New York Rangers wound up their National Hockey League intra-city warfare with Americans for the season tonight with a 7-5 win set to the swift tempo of Cecil Dillon's two goals and three assists.

Victory qualified the Rangers for the Stanley Cup playoffs at 10:00. Spectators watched the game. It assured Rangers of at least third place in the league's American section, eliminating Chicago Black Hawks.

They also won the mythical city championship with four victories in six games with Americans.

Butch Keeling set the issue in the overtime period, taking Phil Watson's pass to break the deadlock in the second minute. Watson added the final goal a few seconds before the end.

Summary
First period—1. Americans, Wiseman, 2:2; 2. Americans, Stewart (Lamb, Jerwa), 10:38; 3. Rangers, Boucher (Shibicky, Dillon), 10:52; 4. Rangers, Keeling (Dillon, Watson), 12:24.
Penalty—Lamb.

Second period—5. Rangers, Dillon (Mc Colville), 5:08; 6. Rangers, Shibicky (Boucher, Dillon), 13:20; 7. Americans, Emms (Stewart, Jenkins), 17:51; 8. Americans, Hemmerling (Wiseman, Anderson), 18:10.
Penalties—Carr, Cooper, Emms.

Third period—9. Americans, Wiseman (Jenkins), 15:21; 10. Rangers, Dillon (Shibicky), 19:36.
Penalties—None.

Overtime period—11. Rangers, Keeling (Watson, Mc Colville), 1:22; 12. Rangers, Watson, 9:37.
Penalty—Jenkins.

INDIAN MATMAN IN MAIN EVENT

Chief Thunderbird Will Oppose Sailor Jack Arnold Here Saturday Night

Back from Honolulu, the land of pineapples and sugar refineries, Chief Thunderbird, Saanich Indian, was yesterday booked for the top spot on Saturday's main programme at the local palace de squim.

Sailor Jack Arnold, colorful Bostonian, who defeated Harry Kent, Portland, two falls to one last Saturday, will be tossed in against Chief Thunderbird. Arnold is one of the most popular pachyderms to show here in a long time. He wrestles clean, always breaks at the call of the referee, and really turns in a smart exhibition.

After a successful invasion of Honolulu, Chief Thunderbird, reported to be a vastly improved grappler, faces quite a task in his coming bout when he climbs over the ropes to match holds with the Bostonian. The bout is scheduled for eight ten-minute rounds, or the best of three falls.

Harnam Singh, Hindu pachyderm, who, despite his recent arrival from Punjab, India, is making good progress in the European style of grappling, will show in the semi-weekly on Thursday to oppose Pat Fraley and will return to Victoria to appear on the local card on Saturday evening. For his bout here the Hindu will be matched with one of the leading heavyweights now regularly appearing on the Coast.

Baer Arrives in The Old Country

LONDON, March 9 (P).—Max Baer, former heavyweight champion, accused of "running out" of a fight with Bob Pastor when he left New York, arrived today radiating optimism and affirming his intention of taking boxing seriously from now on.

Max posed gingerly for photographers and said:

"No foolin'. I'm through with cloggin'. I can't take any risks now because if I get through here O.K. I'm going to meet the winner of the Joe Louis-Jimmy Braddock fight. Louis will beat Braddock."

Baer, to meet the winner of the Ben Ford-Tommy Farr fight, April 15, said he intends to retire to the country immediately to begin extensive training.

Soccer Chatter

BY C. V. MILTON

At last. The long lay-off is definitely over, and we shall very soon be complaining that it is too warm and dusty for soccer. If anyone thought that the boys would be off their game after seven or eight weeks idleness they were a long way off the mark. The first game between Wests and City was played at as hard a pace as any mid-season struggle, and the other three games were not so slow.

Rowe, of the City, has shown up well in a couple of the games, saving brilliantly and contributing to his team's two victories. The West forwards were not as dangerous as usual until the second half of their game, when they had the Thistles' defence on the run. With Sooty Stewart back in the lineup the City will find them much more difficult to hold.

Equimatch, after a poor start, played a plucky game against the City, and were not properly beaten until the second half. With their new lineup the Dockers will improve week by week, for all that their young players lack is experience. Saanich seem to be stronger than they were before the freeze-up, and with a little stiffening in the forward line will give a good account of themselves. Jock McBay is a great general.

In the first of the four games it was noticeable how the pace slackened when Payne of the City and Bell of the Wests were brought to inside positions. Strong wing men, like these two, cannot be switched without loss of effectiveness. Nor did the substitutions that were made improve the game at all. Leave a winning combination well alone.

Things had come to a pretty pass when Equimatch, once the pride and strength of the local league, could not raise a team for their first game. Bad luck dodged their every effort to place eleven qualified men on the field, and finally, rather than have no game, they gave Saanich a good run with a scratch team.

We have often heard it said that soccer is a negligible quantity in the States. But, if one can judge by a recent issue of a Seattle paper, that city can boast more soccer than we have here. I read, for instance, that in a draw for the fourth round of a high school competition there were still nine teams to cater to. How many had been disposed of in the first three rounds?

Also, they enjoyed a real thriller in a senior cup-tie, which, so the report ran, required three overtime periods to settle. Not three overtime games, but three extra periods to the one game. The winning goal, fortunately for players and fans, was scored one minute from the end of the third overtime. I presume they were prepared to struggle on till nightfall.

Again, we recall that San Francisco twice beat the British Columbia representatives, the Royals, at Christmas time. Canada will soon share the same experience as the Old Country, where they can never be quite sure of being able to defeat their opponents from the continent, opponents who, a short time ago, were recognized as learners only.

This week sees the start of one of our most interesting competitions. I refer to the Fragments Cup competition fought out by junior school-boys of the four 'cal municipalities. Always productive of good clean games, this series has in the past been of great importance to the game in that it has been the first public appearance of many of today's senior stars.

Unfortunately Victoria, with a much larger boy population than any other 'cal, and with more male teachers to take care of them, again failed to pit an entry, allowing Oak Bay to enter the final by way of a default. Rather unfair to the boys of the City who are seen enough to play and good enough to take that cup. Surely someone could be found willing, or even anxious, to manage a team from the city schools.

"A gloomy outlook," say some when discussing the chances of losing two or three of our stars before the end of the season. Bell, De Costa, Stewart and Joe Watt are said to be going, but while the loss will be serious, there will be no need for dismal talk, for soccer is a living game, and always new men begin to shine when called upon, and I have no doubt that by the time Charlton visits us we shall be able to field a team capable of taking care of itself.

Watch the Second Division, the Juveniles, and the school kids. There is lots of talent coming.

Chocolate in Draw

NEW YORK, March 9 (P).—Kid Chocolate, of Cuba, one-time feather-weight champion, who has been staging a successful comeback campaign this Winter, fought an exciting eight-round draw with Bernie Friedkin, of New York, before a capacity crowd of 4,500 at the Broadway Arena tonight. Chocolate weighed 127 and Friedkin one pound less.

The Cuban was floored by a hard right to the jaw in the final round but was up again before a count was started.

After hitting the canvas early in the eighth, the Kid fought back savagely to finish on even terms.

COLUMBIANA IS HOLDER OF MARK

NEW YORK, March 9 (P).—Buddy Hirsch's Columbianna broke the United States speed record for fillies over the one and one-quarter miles by running the distance in 2:01 4-5 in the Widener Challenge Cup at Hialeah Saturday, a search of the records showed today.

Available information indicates the previous fastest time for a filly at the distance was 2:02 4-5 raced by Black Maria at Belmont Park in 1926.

ORLANDO, Fla., March 9 (P).—The hold-out troubles of Washington Senators ended today. Pitcher Buck Newsum, said to have taken a $2,000 salary slash, signed for around $9,000.

UNVARYING high quality is the reason why Victoria-brewed beers are universally popular throughout British Columbia. Years ago the big Island brewery set a standard of quality, from which no departure has ever been permitted. You get malt and hops lager at its very best when you ask for Silver Spring or Phoenix Export Lager.
